Understanding Second Language Acquisition is a very serious yet readable book written by a professor whose passion for SLA clearly shows in this book. I recommend this book highly for academics, master's students-in-training, and those who want to read up on the latest in SLA which is written at a graduate level.

Lourdes Ortega is a Spanish-born American linguist. She is currently a professor of applied linguistics at Georgetown University. Her research focuses on second language acquisition and second language writing. She is noted for her work on second language acquisition and for recommending that syntactic complexity needs to be measured multidimensionally. Along with Cumming, Hyland, Kormos, Manchón, Matsuda, Polio, Storch and Verspoor, Ortega is considered as one of the most prominent researchers
